When Buying Fuel

The consumer must always figure on the actual amount of heat and comfort that is gotten for the money spent.

We believe that our connections of long standing, coupled with the large amount of fuel that we buy, make it possible for us to sell the very highest grades of Coal and Wood at prices that are cheapest to the consumer. A trial order of our Coal and Wood, or an opinion from some of our satisfied customers, will prove that our idea of putting quality first is correct.

TUESDAY EVENING, NOV. 1

Bringing Her Round.
Bingo (hitting into his wife's room, in a whisper)—I've brought three friends home to dinner unexpectedly. Mrs. Bingo (aghast)—What! Bingo—Yes, I have. They're down stairs.
Mrs. Bingo—You wretch! Bingo—Now, my dear, I couldn't get out of it.
Mrs. Bingo (haughtily)—Then you'll have to take the consequences. Bingo—But—
Mrs. Bingo—You'll have to put up with practically nothing. Bingo—That's what I told them. Mrs. Bingo—You did?
Bingo—Yes, I told them that they needn't expect a single thing; that we'd scrape round in the kitchen if necessary and pick up whatever we could and that, as I hadn't let you know, that was the best we could do.
Mrs. Bingo—What did you tell them that for?
Bingo—It's the truth, isn't it?
Mrs. Bingo—Certainly not. As if it makes any difference to me how many friends you bring home! I'll show you!—London Tit-Bits.

Little Known Republics.
Within the domain of the United States on the North American continent there have been divers independent republics, says Mary W. Hazeltine in Harper's Magazine, the very name of three of which is known to but a few. How many Americans of today have heard, for example, of the commonwealth of Watauga, which in 1772 was organized as an independent state by North Carolinians who had crossed the Alleghenies and descending into the basin of the Tennessee, had made themselves homes in the valley of the Watauga river? How many remember the commonwealth of Transylvania, which was organized in the eastern part of what is now Kentucky in 1775 and which sent to the Continental congress a delegate, who, however, was not admitted? How many have heard of the short lived state of Franklin, or Frankland, which at a somewhat later period was self created out of certain western counties of North Carolina?

A Remarkable Concert.
A Carlisle letter calls attention to a remarkable concert which took place at the Spa on Aug. 6, 1812, a program of which is still preserved in the city archives at that place. The entertainment was given for the benefit of the sufferers by the fire which had laid waste Baden and took place at the Saechsler Saal. The only performers were Beethoven and Polledro, who played their own compositions. There were two pianoforte and two violin solos and several numbers in which both took part, says the writer. The account of the entertainment also mentions the fact that one of the interested listeners was a "tall, elderly man, wearing a great blue coat, who sat perfectly erect throughout the performance, never looking anywhere but at the stage. This was Goethe." The amount realized for the fund was about $200. The letter ends with, "Beethoven on the piano for charity and box receipts $200."

A Dog's Tongue.
Have you ever wanted to know why a dog's tongue lolls out of his mouth on a hot day or when he has been running? People sometimes say that it is because he is thirsty, but that isn't exactly right. If you look at it you will see little drops of water dripping from it. Well, you know that when you get very warm you get covered with perspiration. The dog's body never perspires. When he gets hot all the moisture comes out through his tongue, and as the moisture on the tongue dries up the dog's body cools.—Philadelphia Press.

How He Took It.
"In training," said an instructor in athletics, "the strictest obedience is required. Whenever I think of the theory of training I think of Dash, who, after eighteen years of married life, is one of the best and happiest husbands in the world."
"Dash," I once said to him, "well, Dash, old man, how do you take married life?"
"According to directions," he replied.

The Sixth Sense.
In a primary school examination over which I once had the pleasure to preside one of the questions was with regard to the five senses. One of the bright pupils handled the subject thus: "The five senses are sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning and coughing. By the sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is sneezing."—Woman's Home Companion.

The Waiter With Two Cars.
A Cleveland party recently sojourning in a Toronto hotel decided to take an automobile ride about the city. They approached the extremely self-conscious clerk and asked him where they could secure a car.
"Our head waiters has two, don't you know," he replied.

It took some little time to recover from this shock, but presently one of the party ventured to ask the price.
"Three an hour," was the answer.
That was voted satisfactory, and at luncheon one of the Clevelanders turned to the nearest waiter.
"Who is the chap that owns two automobiles?" he asked.
"I am the chap," the waiter replied, and he threw such a freezing emphasis into the word "chap" that it was fairly frost cracked.

They finished their luncheon before they had enough courage to ask the price.
"Four dollars an hour," the waiter replied with haughty indifference.
Then they went uptown and hired a very good car for $3 an hour.—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

For Business Use

There are a great many places and occasions when the possibility of getting extra heat immediately effects an economy by decreasing the discomfort of the worker. In the office, in the early morning or late at night, before or after the steamheat is on, it is of importance to have extra heat. In the builder's outside office, in the shipping room, in the checker's shack, on exposed lofts, in railroad stations, in studios, the

PERFECTION SMOKELESS OIL HEATER

is often a necessity. It is safe, smokeless and odorless. Apply a match, and it gives heat quickly. With four quarts of oil it burns nine hours. Has automatic flame spreader, which prevents the wick from being turned high enough to smoke, and is easy to remove and drop back so that the wick can be cleaned in an instant.

It has a cool handle and a damper top. An indicator always shows the amount of oil in the font. The filler-cap it is put in like a cork in a bottle, and is attached to the font by a chain.

The burner body or gallery cannot become wedged, because of a new device in construction, and consequently, it can always be easily unscrewed in an instant for reworking.

The Perfection Oil Heater is finished in Japan or nickel. It is strong, durable, well made, built for service, yet light and ornamental.

The Rhodum Sidus.

An amusing story told by Hood describes how a country nurseryman made a large sum out of sales of a simple little flower which he sold under the name of the Rhodum sidus. This charming name proved quite an attraction to the ladies, and the flower became the rage of the season. It was one of those freaks of fashion for which there is no accounting. At length a botanist who found that the plant was not an uncommon weed requested to know where the nurseryman got the name from. He elicited the following reply: "I found this flower in the road beside us, so christened it the Rhodum sidus."

The Purist Lost a Sale.

"I've just happened to remember that my wife told me to get a tin pan that will go under the icebox. Have you any?"
"No, sir, but we have some that can be shoved under the icebox. Won't that do just as well?"
"I think not, young man. My wife is a bit particular about my getting the exact thing that she tells me to get. I presume I can find it at some other store. Good day, sir."—Chicago Tribune.

Horse Sense.

During a heavy downpour of rain an Irish farmer sent his boy to a distant field to bring home a horse. Some time elapsed, and the messenger returned without the horse.
Father—Didn't I send you for the horse, ye gamoch? Is your head in your breeches?
Little Boy (drenched to the skin)—Sure, he was standin' in shelter as dry as ye loike. Bedad, he knows more than the two of us.

Too Empty.

Bonney (morning of the second day out)—Come, old boy, let's go out on deck. Breakfast won't be served for half an hour yet, and a brisk walk on an empty stomach will do you good.
Klabber (feebly trying to smile)—Take a walk on yours, if you like, chappie. Mine is—entirely too empty.—Chicago Tribune.

In Art Circles.

"That picture is by an old master," the owner stated proudly.
"Umph, umph," commented the critical visitor. "What was he master of?"—Philadelphia Ledger.

His Advice.

She (after the embrace)—Oh, how dare you! You have offended me. What shall I do?
He—Why not "turn the other cheek?"—London Tatler.

What Did It Mean?

A notice board in a Scottish Kirk once bore, it is said, the following amazing sentence: "This church is licensed for the solemnization of marriages."
